

Kreidler Werksteam on the podium twice

Bike Festival Riva is traditionally kick off the European mountain bike season. The Kreidler pilots Tom Ettlich and Pirmin Eisenbarth were on the spot. Both finished with P2. It was a successful weekend for the Kreidler Werksteam.

Tom: „It was a tough race and I struggled a bit with temperatures below 0 degrees on top of the first climb. However I warmed up and eventually found a very good rhythm up the following climbs. At the end I'm very happy with my second place..“

Pirmin: „A fast start of the race caused a leading group of three people including me. As they forced the speed a bit I couldn't hold on and had to go on with my own pace. In the last decent I caught one of the riders and came in 2nd place. Happy to be on the podium the first time this season.“

On May, 13 the Kreidler pilots will be on the starting line at the cross-country race in Gedern, Germany.
