

Tough weekend for Kreidler Werksteam

Milatz and Bauer fought for some valuable points at the Weltcup in Albstadt. Ettlich and Eisenbarth started at the MTB Festival in Achensee. Overall, it was a difficult weekend for the Werksteam pilots.

Moritz: „I am not satisfied with rank 39. Regarding to the circumstances I am looking forward to the next race. After a bad start and limited passing possibilities, I quickly could find a rhythm and finished as 39th.”

Markus: „Starting at 101, showed how difficult it would be to reach the WorldCup points. Nevertheless I gave everything and made up 60 positions in the opening lap. But at the moment my shape doesn't allow me to move up further.”

Pirmin: „In the first climb I struggled with some stomach problems but managed to almost catch the leading group. Feeling strong, a puncture stopped me from being on podium.”

Tom: „I was feeling good and I was aiming for a podium spot. The temperature were quite high and my body just couldn't cope with the heat and I was struggling the whole race. I'm very disappointed with my performance.”

Looking forward to the upcoming Alpentour-Trophy in June.
